Charles T. Prescott of Prescott, Michigan announces his candidacy for re-election for the office of State Senator in the 28th Michigan district, of which Crawford County is a part.

Mr. Prescott has served his district for a period of ten years and as a result of his tenure of office has become an important member of the powerful committees of Senate Business, Agriculture, Conservation and Municipalities.

TORNADO SAFETY RULES

TO KNOW WHAT TO DO WHEN A WARNING IS RECEIVED,
OR A TORNADO IS OBSERVED, MAY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH!!

- I There is no universal protection against tornadoes except caves or underground excavations. When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave, or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas, or debris, and preferably equipped with pick and shovel.
- II 1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
2. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.
- III 1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!
2. In homes: The southwest corner of the basement usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements should find other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar, although a depression, such as a ditch or ravine, can offer some protection. If time permits, electricity and fuel lines should be shut off. Doors and windows on the north and east sides of the house may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.
3. Stay in a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.
- IV 1. In city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors, when possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly-supported roofs.
2. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a safe place.
- V On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines if the tornado approaches the plant. Workers should be moved to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.
- VI Keep calm! It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very small, as a rule, that relatively few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case"
- VII Keep tuned to your radio or television station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

Physical Education

WHAT WE TEACH AND HOW WE TEACH IT

By Barbara Nelson

Physical education is an integral part of education since physical education is a part of education. It has the same general goals. It was in 1913 that a group of leading educators appointed by the National Education Association spent three years preparing a bulletin stating adequate goals for education. These goals are known as the "Seven Cardinal Principles of Education." These goals are as follows: 1. health, 2. command of fundamental processes, 3. worthy home membership, 4. vocation, 5. citizenship, 6. worthy use of leisure time and 7. ethical character. Physical education, well taught, can contribute greatly to these goals.

It is not difficult to comprehend that physical and mental health are important to everyone, regardless of occupation or profession. Physical activity, and a great deal of it, is advocated as one of the necessary means of attaining a healthy development. Activity aids the organic systems of the body function properly. It also provides the opportunity for mental relaxation which is a prerequisite for mental well being.

Skills of the game are the fundamental processes that can be obtained only through participation. Much of the child's life is play, and a large share of it deals with physical skill. In the child's play world, a good performer is the hero and a poor performer is pushed to the background. A child must master the fundamental processes or suffer the consequences of loss in standing and recognition. This is one of life's most severe punishments and can be avoided by improving physical abilities through physical education.

Ethical character, worthy home membership, and citizenship may be grouped together. The qualities that make for achievement in any one of the above provide for achievement in the other two. Physical education is one phase of school work that lends itself particularly well to the development of these goals as it furnishes a laboratory for actual practice. Each game has laws or rules that must be obeyed and there are penalties imposed immediately upon infraction of the law. Team sports provide numerous opportunities to give and take, cooperate, exercise self control, display sportsmanship and develop leadership. All good traits developed through physical education will not carry over from one situation to another, but if there are many and entitled well, at least a few will be expected to carry over to similar life situations.

The endurance, strength and skills, developed in physical activities increases one's efficiency in many types of work. The leadership and poise developed in many games are valuable vocational assets. The skills and knowledge gained through participation in physical education are of direct economic value to certain groups of people. Many people earn their living teaching and coaching physical activities, others by officiating, and still others by actually playing the game. Increased demand for playground and recreation directors provides vocational opportunities for those with adequate physical education experiences.

Understanding and enjoyment are the determining factors as to whether a game will be used for leisure time activity. Dance, bowling, tennis, basketball, badminton, golf, swimming and volleyball are a few of the activities that can be taught in a physical education program. Perhaps by knowing and enjoying these games the child and adult will choose these activities for leisure time rather than those activities undesirable to society.

Physical education presents fundamental aspects of child development that cannot be separated from the "Seven Cardinal Principles of Education." The illustration of these principles cannot fail to verify the conception that physical education is not a separate and partially related field, but a vital contributing factor in the total education of the child.

Best Medium...

The Western World, of Bandon, Oregon, points out: "After all the revolutionary changes which have taken place in the advertising world in the last ten years, the newspaper—it is now proven—remains the best medium of advertising."

The proof is found in the lineage figures. As the World adds: "In spite of all the competition from new media, newspaper advertising continues to grow and the public continues to express its confidence in newspapers to an amazing degree."

The newspaper—large or small, daily or weekly—is an established American institution. Nothing has changed that—and nothing will as long as we remain a free nation.

The Money You Never See...

Thurman Sensing of the Southern States Industrial Council suggests that the major reason why people don't realize how excessively expensive government is lies in "the fact that they never see the taxes they pay."

This is because most or all of the federal income taxes paid by the majority of workers are required to be withheld by the employer, who turns them into the Treasury. The worker never sees the money and so doesn't realize he didn't get his full earnings.

Thus the device of the withholding tax may indirectly encourage government waste and extravagance. It's certain that people would have a very different picture of affairs if they had to personally turn over their full taxes to the tax collectors.

Can We Tie Our Own Shoelaces?

A child is more self-reliant if he can tie his own shoelaces; the same principle applies in the realm of public affairs.

United States Senator Harry F. Byrd recently said, "... we are building up a government of paternalism. There is no state in this Union that can't support its school system. ... There is not a single county in this country that can't do it. Of course, if they think they are getting something for nothing from the Federal

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

May 25, 1933

Mercy Hospital and its surroundings never appeared more beautiful than on last Sunday when the dedication of the new Walter P. Murphy elevator took place, and it held its annual open house, the latter having been postponed from National Hospital Day, May 12th.

The event was attended by 500 people in attendance and as the weather was so ideal the program of the afternoon was held in the out-of-doors.

The Avalanche is pleased to announce the winners in the contest of historical sketches on the Ausable River. The honors go to H. C. McKinley, Grayling. The second prize winner is Henry Stephan of Grayling.

With the presentation of "Would You Believe It?" by the Senior class last Thursday night the season of high school dramatics for this year and a fitting finale was portrayed before a good-sized audience. A very well balanced group of eleven school-age actors put the play over. They were Veronica Lovely, Jack LaGrow, Gail Welsh, Norma Pray, Wesley Sammons, Nadine McNeven, Wilma Burrows, Billy LaGrow, Milford Parker, and Brady and Kenneth Gohro. The seniors overcame a lot of tough luck in the preparation of this play. Miss Norine Berry's direction showed its results. Between the acts the high school orchestra under the direction of Miss Louise McAllister entertained effectively. Celeste Neal and Clara Atkinson did a very neat clog to the mad strains of "Gottus" in the evening's entertainment.

Julius Fochelson of Detroit enjoyed a few days' outing at their cabin, "Fighting Deers," on the river.

Mrs. Frank Lydell and grand daughter Miss Norma Pray, and Elmer Neal spent Saturday in Petoskey.

Mrs. Ernest Hoels left Wednesday for Rudyard to spend two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cottle.

Joe Hale of Grayling is building a gas station on the corner of US 27 and Chestnut St. Edw. Nelson will be in charge of the station.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borchers, Mrs. Nettie Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Borchers, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Niederer and Mrs. Frank Muhl attended the funeral of Fred Aebli in Bay City last Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Keyport were hosts at an open house for their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wolff of New York Sunday evening. It was a very pleasant, informal occasion, and those present enjoyed visiting with the honor guests.

Mrs. Olga Boeson is entertaining the Danish Ladies Aid at her home this afternoon.

Instead of the usual banquet the Alumni have planned an Alumni Hop to be given in the High School gym, June 9th. At a meeting held Friday night, Russell Rolon was elected the new president; George Schroeder, treasurer and Ingeborg Hanson, secretary.

The High School boys have organized baseball teams which are proving to be very interesting both for the players and spectators. There are four teams, the Cubs, Good Luck, A's and the Yanks. Games are played every Monday and Wednesday.

The Seniors have set the date of their annual skip day for June 2, and plan on motoring to Traverse City to spend the day.

Miss Margaret and Olga Nielsen and Miss Sylvia Rendle spent Sunday in Bay City and Saginaw visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lozon have been spending a few days visiting the former's parents in Maple Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph and daughter Irene, and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Randolph were in Bay City Thursday.

Anker Hanson and Charles Woods left Saturday for Sault Ste. Marie where they will enter the Fort Brady Training Camp and later the Civilian Conserva-Corps.

Miss Veronica Lovely entertained several girls at her home last Thursday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent working jigsaw puzzles after which the hostess served a delicious lunch.

Miss Veronica Lovely entertained several girls at her home last Thursday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent working jigsaw puzzles after which the hostess served a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pratt and baby and his mother, Mrs. Jim Pratt, visited relatives at Grayling Sunday.

Most of the young people of Fredrick attended the ball game at Johannesburg Sunday. Fredrick boys won again, score 20 to 14.

About forty young people gathered at the home of Smith Parkison in Fredrick last Friday night to help their daughter Clara celebrate her 18th birthday. She was showered with some very nice presents, also a poem "My Birthday," composed by T. G. Roby which Clara read just before a delicious potluck lunch was served. The young folk were favored with music by J. O'Dell, Wm. Johnson and George Tolliver.

The efforts of the Civic League to improve the appearance of our town, especially the approach to the river, already show the benefit of systematic work by some of our public spirited citizens. Two different groups have given hours of hard labor and much has been accomplished. One group of men went to Beaver Creek and brought in 24 maple trees. Eleven of these were planted in the school yard, while the others were set out in the park.

The Sisters of Mercy donated 100 plants and shrubs and these have been placed in the school yard. Mrs. KeChittago and Mr. Gierke had a beautiful white spruce set out in memory of Henry Bauman. In the future, what could be a more beautiful monument to one's memory than a tree?

May 25, 1910

Wm. Woodfield represented the Masonic Lodge of Grayling at the annual convention of the Grand Lodge in Saginaw Tuesday and Wednesday.

F. L. Michelson and family drove down from Johannesburg in their auto Saturday returning the first of the week. Frank is especially fond of trout. John Johnson and wife, now of Lansing, came up last week to close a deal of their old home with Mr. Corvin.

The Michelson Lumber Company have taken some fine photographic views of their mills and the new town of Michelson. Lee Avenue seems to be the principal street and looks quite metropolitan with a fine row in the foreground.

Peter L. Brown went to Traverse City last week and purchased a lot of modern concrete and machinery, and is ready for any kind of cement work.

J. A. Kramer has sold his plumbing shop and stock to F. Deckroff.

The comet, which cost our people so many hours and considerable anxiety, was fairly visible Tuesday evening and watched by a large number.

Rolla Brink's arms ache yet from the strain of landing a double catch of rainbow, one of which measured sixteen and the other fifteen inches, the first of the week.

The new railroad grade is in sight and but a few rods from the city limits. A large crew are now filling the approaches to the bridge, just north of the "burned river," where the railroad will come into town. Sheriff Amidon and the "Picture Man" drove out to the camp Tuesday afternoon, and the latter took a number of views of the camp and crew.

Miss Altha McIntyre, who is teaching in Arizona, sent her brother Arthur, by mail, a fine specimen of "horned load," which is a common reptile there and carries the influence of the southern climate, but will soon go to the Northwest, where he has accepted a responsible position. His old school friends here rejoice with him for his success.

Holger Clawson, who like all our Grayling boys, has made good for the past two years in Alabama, is home for a visit, while recuperating from the enervating influence of the southern climate, but will soon go to the Northwest, where he has accepted a responsible position. His old school friends here rejoice with him for his success.

When it purrs, you reign

YOU CAN hardly hear its whispered might—but man, you sure can feel it.

It's power almost without limit—power that humbles the hills, melts the miles, makes you monarch of all you survey.

For this is a new Buick—a '56 Buick—sparked by the most potent engine in Buick annals—a 322-cubic-inch V8 with a record high compression of 9.5 to 1.

But what makes you feel even more like bossman of the highway is the great new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

First time you tickle the gas pedal you'll know what we mean.

Now—smack in the top inch of gas pedal travel—right where you save gas every turn of the wheels—you get a swift, sure and supremely positive new getaway response.

For smooth and nimble performance—for sheer mastery in traffic—nothing like it ever was.

And that's just part of it. When you need a still greater flow of get-up-and-go for safety's sake, you merely switch the pitch and you zoom out of tight spots.

So come rule the roost in this '56 Buick. Come drive a car with 127 gorgeous inches of wheelbase to give it regal room and a ride that's fit for a king.

Try-out Buick's new steering—new center-grooved brakes—new direct-acting shock absorbers with triple the former volume of bounce-cushioning oil.

Learn how it feels to boss a car that looks like royalty and acts the part to perfection.

We promise—you'll practically purr with delight at the wheel of this dazzler—especially when you discover how easily you can make it your own.

What do you say—shall we expect you today?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Alcoholism Rate Shown For Crawford County

(Special to the Avalanche)

NEW YORK — How much alcoholism is there in Crawford County? How many problem drinkers are there? How does the local situation compare with conditions elsewhere?

An attempt to answer the questions and to "locate geographically the problem drinkers of the United States, estimated at 4,680,000, is made by Yale University researchers in the current Quarterly Journal of Studies on Alcohol.

Adaptation of the figures in the survey points out a total of "alcoholics with complications" in Crawford County. That designation refers to those who have developed recognizable physical or mental symptoms due to excessive drinking.

It is estimated by the researchers that for every man or woman who fits this category there are three other problem drinkers — excessive imbibers — without such complications.

Among adults of age 21 or over, the rate of alcoholism with complications in Crawford County is 780 per 100,000 people.

For the United States generally, the rate is 1,097 per 100,000 adults according to the study. In the East North Central States, it is 754 per 100,000.

The number of alcoholics with complications is determined by a formula which has as its base the number of deaths from cirrhosis of the liver among residents of each community. There is a constant relationship between such deaths and the degree of alcoholism, according to the survey.

A great increase in the alcoholism rate since 1940 is reported. Partly, it is attributed to improved medical diagnosis and reporting. To a large extent, also, it is believed due to the rise in drinking among women.

The number of female addicts has been growing rapidly. Prior to prohibition, only one out of 25 alcoholics was a woman. Now it is one out of four.

What to do about it? It is pointed out that a change in attitude toward the alcoholic is needed. It must be recognized that he is a person in trouble. Intelligent aid, medical and psychological, are called for.

LEGION NEWS

A parade will be held this Decoration Day as the school band has promised to turn out and it is expected and hoped, that along with various veteran organizations and Scouts that there will be some of the labor organizations take part.

A speaker is being sought for services at the River and at the cemetery.

Parade will start at 10 a. m. sharp May 30th from the Legion home.

If any other group would like to turn out, please contact Lyle Bilsby in order that the order may be arranged.

How is your flag? The Legion has flags for sale, and there's no excuse for flying a shabby one, and less for not flying one at all.

At our last meeting it was decided to turn over to the Grayling High Band some of our drums, snare and bass, as we understand they can use some.

There are still some who have not paid their 1956 dues, and we need them right now if we are to hit our quota again this year, let's take care of this before it slips your mind again.

We are extending an invitation to all eligible veterans to sign up, it only costs $5.00 per year and where can you get as much for your money? Drop in at the club and see Bill or Jim fill out an application and get in line with the rest of the gang.

Play Ball - Batter Up

H. L. Treat
Regional Supervisor, Field Adm.

Let's play ball. This is not a game with the Tigers vs. the Yankees or the Phillies vs. the Cubs. It is a game that affects the lives of each of us between a team we will call the Forest Fire Controllers and their arch enemy the Destroyers.

The game is scheduled today and continues every day during the summer, except rainy and wet days. The game lasts from early morning until late at night and sometimes continues into the night during periods of extreme hazards. It can be seen almost anywhere in the forested areas of Michigan. The diamond has an area of some 25,000 acres of valuable timber and recreation lands dotted with hunting cabins, summer and permanent homes that are so dear to many.

Who plays on these important teams? The Fire Controllers are composed of every good citizen of this state who realizes the great damage caused when the Destroyers are on the loose and out to win. The Destroyers are a formidable foe and are composed of some giants that will require the best cooperation, coordination and training possible on the part of the Fire Controllers if they expect to win.

The Destroyers have a manager whom we all know. He may be your neighbor and he is the type of individual who is unthinking or just plain careless. He is the man who tosses out a live cigarette or pipe butt while traveling down the road. He is the man who burns rubbish without taking the necessary precautions. He is the land clearer who leaves his fire unattended. He is the man who does not put out his campfire. His team mates are high winds, low humidity, drought, slash and dry grasslands.

This team is well organized and needs only the flick of a cigarette or the spark of a match to put in motion with a will to win. For years this team was a consistent winner, but today the situation is somewhat changed and the Controllers are more than holding their own. This change has been brought about because the Fire Controllers now have better equipment and more citizens who are playing on the team. Thanks to new speakers, radio and TV stations, our schools and the efforts of individual citizens, the Controller team has been tremendously strengthened.

IT ISN'T unbelievable that your wife's or girl's diamond engagement ring came from Arkansas. More than 2,000 diamonds have been found in that state, the largest stone weighing about 16 carats. Incidentally, one-carat diamond is equal in weight to one-fifth of a gram. The diamond is a curious—as well as a valuable—thing. Its brilliance is due to its ability to refract light. The transparency of the diamond to X-rays distinguishes it from paste imitations. After diamonds have been exposed to strong sunlight, they become phosphorescent if removed to a dark room. They also emit light on friction and on exposure to electron bombardment in a vacuum tube. The colorless diamond is the purest form of carbon found in nature.

Inveterate gamblers overlook no possibilities for a small wager—even to the extent of betting on the speed of Mexican jumping beans. This curious seed, infested with the living caterpillar of a moth, has for centuries intrigued man by its erratic behavior. In the United States, where they are especially in demand, jumping beans are sold in large numbers. Not only do children and adults enjoy watching the beans jump, but they often use them for table games in which the beans represent racing animals.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Probably most vital decision that will come out of present Congressional session will be the action on so-called Bricker amendment to U. S. Constitution.

Senate Judiciary Committee has approved.

Yet this committee action is not decisive because in February 1954, despite strong administration opposition, measure failed by just one vote of getting required two-thirds majority.

But unless the Bricker amendment is passed it is possible that many Americans now living will see the day when their property is confiscated; may even find themselves hauled out of the country to stand trial before some foreign court.

Herein lies seriousness of situation. Article VI of the U. S. Constitution provides that treaties are the supreme law of the land, and judges are bound by the provisions of treaties, Constitution or local state laws notwithstanding.

Already in several instances the U. S. Supreme Court has ruled itself powerless to step over the provisions of a treaty, regardless of the injury suffered by an American citizen.

And to make the situation even more fraught with danger, some courts have already taken the stand that executive agreements are equally as binding.

The Bricker amendment would provide that any part of a treaty or agreement in conflict with the U. S. Constitution shall be without force or effect.

On several occasions, nation's independent businessmen who comprise the membership of the National Federation of Independent Business have by overwhelming majorities voted in favor of Bricker amendment.

Anyone who doubts the seriousness of the situation has only to consider that the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, known as UNESCO, has published booklets advising American school teachers to rid children of any feeling of love or loyalty for their country, condemning such feelings as belonging to "the narrow family spirit." Unless Bricker amendment is passed, this could become compulsory teaching in U. S. schools. Joe Stalin, when he pauses to wipe sweat off his brow, must chuckle over this.

Michigan National Guard Seeks Maximum 1956 Camp Attendance

Attendance at 1956 field training is expected to be the largest in the history of the Michigan National Guard, Major General George C. Moran, The Adjutant General of Michigan, announced today.

To help make it so, Guardsmen have begun their annual campaign to acquaint their employers with the necessity for adequate military leave policies.

Spearheading the campaign, General Moran has mailed personal letters to secretaries of Chambers of Commerce in 54 communities supporting Guard units and to executives of trade associations. He asked their assistance in informing employers of 1956 field training dates and of the need for adequate military leave policies.

With a current strength of more than 12,900 officers and men in the Michigan National Guard, attendance at 1956 field training may reach the 13,000 mark. Last year a total of 11,768 officers and men, or 95.86 per cent of assigned strength attended field training.

In his letters General Moran stressed the importance of field training. These 15 days in the field climax our annual military training year and provide the best opportunity for our officers and men to put to test the lessons they have learned at home stations.

"As members of the Michigan National Guard, a commitment entirely within the Ready Reserve, our officers and men are required to attend annual field training. Employers can make it easier for them to do so by providing military leave with pay in addition to regular paid vacations."

Unit commanders have been directed to seek military leave for their men at the local level. Many employers already have established favorable military leave policies. Some grant military leave with full pay in addition to regular vacations. Others grant two weeks' military leave in addition to regular vacations plus the difference between regular pay and Guard pay. Still others grant two weeks' military leave without pay in addition to regular vacations.

WINTER DEER LOSS SET AT 41,650

Losses to the deer herd in the northern lower peninsula during the fall and winter totaled an estimated 41,650 animals, according to a Conservation Department survey. This is exclusive of the legal kill in November. The comparative figure a year ago was 32,500.

Starvation led all causes of death with 16,600, an increase of 11,100 over the number of starved deer a year ago. Other causes reported in the 1956 survey were: shot, 5,680; dog kill, 3,420; accident, 1,080; unknown, 14,870. Of the latter the survey included the probability that shooting and disease took a large number of these animals.

It was pointed out in the survey report that starved deer were more widely distributed during the past winter than they were in 1955 when the bulk of starvation losses was confined to the so-called "club country." Also, about 10 per cent of the starved deer were fawns as compared to 30 per cent in the "shot" group and 30 per cent in the "unknown" group.

Results of the survey are based on reports of three-man crews who walked over selected strips of land two and a half miles long throughout an area covering 18,461 square miles. The strips were determined by statisticians on a random basis.

The survey of losses to the upper peninsula deer herd was delayed by weather, and results will not be available for several days.

After Aug. 10 when it becomes effective, communities may get authority for their district from the commission by making application and proving the need in a hearing.

The original bill would have given the commission power to force action upon local areas and a companion proposal would have released $800,000 in state money to help.

These extended powers were whacked out of the proposals as they went through the legislature. The commission also was named in the law as the fiscal agent for the state, raising state and federal money to local districts when it becomes available.

"That's what the law reads, but there just isn't any money available," said Milton P. Adams, the commission's executive secretary.

Official Lansing Busted With the news that Secretary of State James M. Hare was applying to have his 221 fee-paid branch office managers brought under civil service.

Hare said his request was prompted by the embezzlement of $74,000 by Mrs. Anna Thorpe, former branch manager at St. Clair Shores, who later fled to Mexico.

He said the same sort of thing had plagued his predecessors and pointed to two embezzlements of $14,000 and $13,000 for which two branch managers were sent to prison.

"I'm complaining against the system of appointment which can lead to trouble," he said.

Republicans pointed out that placing the managers under civil service would require separate offices, locally, salaries, extra drains on state employee retirement pensions and other expenses. "Hare is trying to freeze present Democrats in office," said Senator C. Coleman (R-Battle Creek).

Civil Service officials, who have studied the problem for years, said they doubted that the examination which would have to be passed by applicants would differentiate between the parties.

But Hare will appear before the next Civil Service Commission meeting to ask for the change.

Politicians are reluctant to comment, but it would remove the last stronghold of patronage. Michigan has had few political plums to hand out to party faithfuls since civil service became operative years ago.

Democrats Are Going To Give prizes to the national convention as prizes for individuals and counties enrolling the largest number of new party members this year.

The party has worked out a formula to assign quotas to each county. Counties enrolling 125 per cent of the quota may designate a winner to make the free trip.

Individuals can win a trip for the largest number of registrations within a county.

Mrs. Kathryn Nye, of East Lansing, and a member of the state central committee for the sixth district has been named chairman of the statewide registration program.

St. Mary's Ladies Club

At the May meeting of St. Mary's Ladies Club, held in the parish hall, Tuesday evening of last week, the members had the privilege of hearing the religion classes of the 7th and 8th grades in a catechism. Rev. Fr. Breitenstein asked the questions and although a few went down, the majority stood up to the finish. All the pupils did exceptionally well and made a very interesting and enjoyable program. The School Guild of which Mrs. Anthony Buron is director planned the program. As a reward the Club treated boys and girls to cake and pop in their school room.

During the business session of the Club the summer project of the weekly Sunday bake sales was discussed. A bazaar is also to be held in conjunction with the bake sales, of which Mrs. Herman Clark is chairman, and she already is hard at work on plans for it. Coffee and cake were served by the lunch committee from a buffet table centered with a miniature May altar. Serving on the committee were Mrs. Clifford Malloy, chairman, Mrs. Emil Kraus, Miss Virginia Kraus, Mrs. Floyd SanCartier, Mrs. Charles Keway, Mrs. Arthur Parkinson, Jr. and Mrs. Roy Lovely. ## YOU'RE A MAINLINER!

Whether you live in a tiny village in the northern part of Michigan or on a heavily traveled street in one of our major cities or right out on the farm, you're a mainliner so far as your convenience of living and doing business is concerned.

That's because the highly-developed, fast, flexible trucking industry which serves the concentrated population centers of this great state of ours provides equally thorough and complete service for sparsely-settled, out-of-the-way places.

Yes, trucks provide the ONLY freight transportation which reaches ALL of Michigan — bringing merchandise and materials to every Wolverine household, farm, and business concern, no matter how far off the beaten path it may be.

Thanks to trucks, you can live or do business anywhere in Michigan you please and still be on the main line!
